

PHD CONFERENCE ORGANIZED BY THE ORIENTAL BUSINESS AND INNOVATION CENTER (OBIC)

'The Past and the Future of Hungary's Diplomatic and Trade Relations with East Asia'

INSTRUCTIONS FOR FULL PAPER SUBMISSIONS

Authors should observe high academic standards. Plagiarism in any form is incompatible with research ethics and our values.

Manuscripts in Word format must be sent to the following email addresses: balog.amadea@uni-bge.hu

FORMAL REQUIREMENTS

1. The length of articles is limited to about 6000-8000 words. (Only in exceptional cases, studies exceeding this limit can be published.)
2. Articles must begin with a short abstract written by the author(s) not exceeding 250 words.
3. The text must be aligned to the left margin, and without any text formatting applied (including capitals, larger or smaller font sizes, the use of color, etc.).
4. The text may be subdivided into sections. Each section must have a title and number. Each section can be divided into subsections, numbered according to the scheme 2., 2.2. etc.
5. Tables and graphs should be sent in excel or similar format too.
6. Font type and size: Times New Roman, 12pt.
7. The bibliographical references must be in-text-citation - given directly in the main text and not in the footnotes using the following format: (Csáki, 2010, p. 25). (Csáki – Kovács, 2010, p. 25). If more than three authors: (Csáki et al. 2010, p. 25).
8. Footnotes can only be used when additional information must be added the body of the text. Footnotes with continuous counting must appear at the bottom of the page.
9. Referring to a miscellaneous essay: Small, F. (2007): Convergence in Big Europe. In: Big, R.: Selected studies 2000-2007. Vol. II, Budapest, Nagy Publisher, pp. 226-228.
10. Referring to an internet publication: Small, F. – Big, R. (2007): Budget Deficit and Convergence. [online] Available form: <http://www.fisk.hu/info>. Accessed: 15th March 2007.
11. The main text is followed by a reference list in ABC order using the following format: Kovacs, F. (2014): Budget Deficit. International Institution. Working Paper. 42. March, pp. 1-15.